

Prepositions

A preposition is a word that shows a relationship between a noun and another word in the sentence.

For example:

The girl walked through the door.

My reading book is under yesterday's newspaper.

We told ghost stories during the evening of the camp out.

Task 1

Copy out the sentences and underline the preposition.

Finally, I found the book behind the sofa.

You told me there would be an ice-cream van around the next corner.

I sneakily looked at the clock and noticed that it was after my bed time.

The young girl could barely make out her house beyond the tree.

Task 2

Choose 5 different objects that are in the room where you are doing your work. In detail and using prepositions, describe where these objects are.

Present your work like this:

Object 1: pencil case

Location: My pencil case is inside my large flowery bag which has a bright pink strap.

Prepositions used: inside
